Ah, you must be an aspiring subpoena who is visiting Trumvon for the first time. Ho him, you came to the right place. This is a very summoned guild that produced Ian, the legendary summoner. I'm sure you can become a great summoner like Ian if you work hard. But no matter how talented you may be, summoner is nothing without a pet. Come back when you catch the red wolf and promote you to subpoena. Oh, that's right. Maybe you should stop cooking before you go. And before going into battle, be sure to equip your items by going to the menu in the upper left corner. Learn skills - learn passive skills for your summoner to become stronger. Donate - Items to earn post points. Guild store - buy items with contribution points. Cooking lab - you must be an pushy summoner who has just arrived at the guild. The master gave you a little meat? Okay, that should be enough for a meat rice cake. I'll teach you how to cook. Tap on the food you want to cook - it shows the effect of the ingredients. Required ingredients - is a list list (use cheat codes). Tap next to open the folder selection menu. Check the amount of ingredients you need for cooking. Tap the ingredients you need to select. You can use the + and buttons to set the amount of food you want to cook. Of course, the amount of ingredients you need increases with the amount of food you want to cook. You can click max to cook the maximum amount with the ingredients you have. Take meat rice and go to the entrance to the Somur Mountain. It should be enough to calm the wolves! And if you're lucky, you may even be able to capture one that's a little more special. You can play challenge stages once you have beaten the boss of the corresponding exploring stage. You can set up your pets before going to battle. Tap the pets you want to include and place them in the location grid on the left. The number of pets you can include is determined by your leadership and team size. Keep in mind that these stats will increase with your summoner level. Tap the pets you want to include and place them in the location grid on the left. Pets placed here will be automatically summoned in these positions if you allow an automatic battle. Remember that high class pet have more required XP. You can earn posts points by completing missions and use points to learn summoner skills. The summons guild is essential to become a great summoner. You can use the post points that you have earned for the guild to learn summoner skills and purchase items from the guild. I'll explain it in a simple way, so pay close attention.
